New York Stock Exchange.

New York, June 12.—The stock market was again very active to day with a feverish and weak tone in the forenoon, which was succeeded by a rally later which brought prices up to and in most cases above last night's figures. Grangers and Gould stocks were once more the centres of attraction, and in both there were wide and violent fluctuations, while outside of these two groups there was very little interest in the market.

Governments dull and steady.
